

Sample Question Bank – Finisher and Packer

Q1. Before starting finishing and packing operations, a Finisher & Packer should:

- A. Start packing immediately
- B. Review orders and read the job card carefully
- C. Dispatch products directly
- D. Prepare invoices only

Answer: B. Review orders and read the job card carefully

Q2. Why is it important to read the job card before packing?

- A. To know employee attendance
- B. To understand packing mode, style, and customer instructions
- C. To determine salary details
- D. To prepare machine maintenance reports

Answer: B. To understand packing mode, style, and customer instructions

Q3. Which of the following is considered a finishing operation?

- A. Fabric weaving
- B. Thread cutting and spotting
- C. Yarn spinning
- D. Pattern drafting

Answer: B. Thread cutting and spotting

Q4. Finishing and packing operations should be divided into sub-processes primarily to:

- A. Increase paperwork
- B. Improve productivity and quality
- C. Delay production
- D. Reduce communication

Answer: B. Improve productivity and quality

Q5. Which sequence is most likely to be part of a finishing and packing process?

- A. Folding → Polybagging → Sticking
- B. Weaving → Dyeing → Knitting
- C. Drafting → Grading → Marker Making
- D. Sampling → Merchandising → Shipping

Answer: A. Folding → Polybagging → Sticking

Q6. Why should finishing and packing processes be organized in a defined sequence?

- A. To avoid quality checks
- B. To ensure productivity and quality standards
- C. To increase material wastage
- D. To reduce supervision

Answer: B. To ensure productivity and quality standards

Q7. What should be developed to ensure all finishing and packing tasks are completed properly?

- A. Production Invoice
- B. Checklist for tasks
- C. Salary Register
- D. Purchase Order

Answer: B. Checklist for tasks

Q8. Before starting a task, a Finisher & Packer should ensure availability of:

- A. Marketing materials only
- B. Materials, resources, tools, and equipment
- C. Transport vehicles only
- D. Office furniture

Answer: B. Materials, resources, tools, and equipment

Q9. If there is a shortage of materials required for packing, the worker should:

- A. Ignore the shortage
- B. Purchase materials independently
- C. Report the issue to the supervisor
- D. Stop work permanently

Answer: C. Report the issue to the supervisor

Q10. Which sequence best represents the planning process for finishing and packing?

- A. Pack product → Read job card → Prepare checklist
- B. Read job card → Identify finishing operations → Divide into sub-processes → Organize sequence → Prepare checklist → Report shortages if any
- C. Prepare checklist → Pack product → Read instructions
- D. Report shortages → Dispatch product → Create checklist

Answer: B. Read job card → Identify finishing operations → Divide into sub-processes → Organize sequence → Prepare checklist → Report shortages if any